Theme for Fall 2019: We talk a lot about our Lord ... and we talk a lot about our human condition (imperfect sinners), but we don't always bring them together like we will this semester. We so want to be like God ... trying to control all the details of our lives, wanting to know everything about everyone, making all of our own choices, etc. We'll use Scripture to learn more about our great God and more about our struggles, and how we can better understand all of our complicated lives through bringing these two topics together.
