My Jesus I Love Thee – #78

Benediction

Postlude

Truly Amazing
Amazed at His Sacrifice
Mark 10:32-34

Question: How should we understand the death of Jesus and the nature of his walk towards it?

I. Jesus Walking Ahead of the Disciples (32a)

~ What's up with that?

II. The Disciples Were Amazed (32b)

~ Why so amazed?

III. Jesus Again Began to Tell the Disciples (32c-34)

~ What does this tell us about his walk?

Point to Ponder: Noticing how someone walks, is likely never the cause of our amazement. Yet as we understand something of the cost of the cross of Jesus, and the object of his love demonstrated there, should we too not marvel at how Jesus walks towards the cross? Take time this week and ponder the steps Jesus resolutely took toward the events of Friday.

Next Week:

On Thursday evening we will continue our Lenten sermon series entitled Truly Amazing by considering Mark 15:1-5 'Amazed at His Secret Ambition.' Next Sunday, Easter Morning, we will gather outside and consider Mark 16:1-8 'Amazed at the Empty Tomb.' Both services will also be streamed on Facebook.

All Glory, Laud and Honor

All glory laud and honor
To Thee Redeemer King
To Whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring
Thou art the King of Israel
Thou David's royal Son
Who in the Lord's Name comest
The King and Blessed One

The company of angels
Are praising Thee on High
And mortal men and all things
Created make reply
The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went
Our prayer and praise and anthems
Before Thee we present

To Thee before Thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise
To Thee now high exalted
Our melody we raise
Thou didst accept their praises
Accept the praise we bring
Who in all good delightest
Thou good and gracious King

Music by Melchior Teschner, c.1613

Praise God from Whom All Blessings

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow
Praise Him all creatures here below
Praise Him above ye heavenly hosts
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost
Amen

Words: Doxology by Thomas Ken, 1709
Music: Old Hundredth from Genevan Psalter, 1551

Blessed Redeemer

Up Calvary's mountain one dreadful morn
Walked Christ my Savior weary and worn
Facing for sinners death on a cross
That He might save them from endless loss

Blessed Redeemer, precious Redeemer
Seems now I see Him on Calvary's tree
Wounded and bleeding for sinners pleading
Blind and unheeding dying for me

"Father forgive them," my Savior prayed
Even while His lifeblood flowed fast away
Praying for sinners while in such woe
No one but Jesus ever loved so

Blessed Redeemer, precious Redeemer
Seems now I see Him on Calvary's tree
Wounded and bleeding for sinners pleading
Blind and unheeding dying for me

Blessed Redeemer, precious Redeemer
Seems now I see Him on Calvary's tree
Wounded and bleeding for sinners pleading
Blind and unheeding dying for me

Oh how I love Him, Savior and Friend
How can my praises ever find end?
Through years unnumbered on Heaven's shore
My song shall praise Him forevermore

Blessed Redeemer, precious Redeemer
Seems now I see Him on Calvary's tree
Wounded and bleeding for sinners pleading
Blind and unheeding dying for me

My Jesus, I Love Thee

My Jesus I love Thee, I know Thou art mine
For Thee all the follies of sin I resign
My gracious Redeemer, my Savior art Thou
If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus 'tis now

I love Thee because Thou hast first loved me
And purchased my pardon On Calvary's tree
I love Thee for wearing
The thorns on Thy brow
If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus 'tis now

I'll love Thee in life, I will love Thee in death
And praise Thee as long as
Thou lendest me breath
And say when the death-dew
Lies cold on my brow
If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now

In mansions of glory, and endless delight
I'll ever adore Thee in heaven so bright
I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow
If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now

Words by William R. Featherstone, c.1862
Music by Adoniram J. Gordon, 1876
